

Diversity data

The Legal Services Act 2007 specifies a regulatory objective to encourage a strong, independent, diverse and effective legal profession within firms that supply reserved legal services such as probate.

The collecting, reporting and publishing of this diversity data is a requirement under Regulation 2.7 of the Probate Regulations and our firm's findings are as follows:

Professions:

One ICAEW Chartered Accountant

Two other Chartered Accountants

One other profession manager

One other profession qualified

One direct support staff

Age: The firm's age range is between 25 and 64.

Gender: There is one male and 5 females.

Disability: No one considers themselves to be disabled.

Ethnic group: All members of staff preferred not to say.

Sexual orientation: Six heterosexuals.

Socio economic background:

Two attended university

Four attended state school

One was the first of their family to attend university

One was not the first of their family to attend university

Social mobility – did any of your parent(s)/guardian(s) complete a university degree:

One Yes

Five No

Highest level of qualifications:

Four staff have professional qualifications

Two staff have O levels

Did your household receive income support or school meals during your school years:

Six No

Caring responsibilities: All members of staff preferred not to say